

WRITING & TECHNOLOGY WORKSHOP

“What do I do with our Chromebooks that will help kids write better and not just feel like busy work?”

Come to Illinois Writing Project’s Writing & Technology Workshop and discover new ways to use technology in literacy classrooms

You Will Learn

- ✓ What it means to be a 21st century writing teacher
- ✓ How digital writers learn to collaborate
- ✓ How students can create a positive online presence
- ✓ How digital writers distribute their writing
- ✓ How digital writing processes intersect with writing workshop

Who is this workshop for?

Classroom teachers, support staff, and literacy leaders who want to incorporate digital processes into writing workshop.

DISCOVER HOW TO USE CHROMEBOOKS AND TABLETS IN WAYS THAT WILL HELP YOUR STUDENTS BECOME BETTER WRITERS

IWP SUMMER 2018 OFFERINGS

Course	Dates	Fee
Teaching Writing “Basic 30”	7/9 - 7/13, M-F 8:30 - 2:30	$300
Summer Leadership Institute (SLI)	7/16 - 7/20, M-F 8:30 - 2:30	$300
Writing & Technology	7/9 - 7/11, M-W* 8:30 - 2:30*	$150
Social-Emotional Learning and Writing	7/11 - 7/13, W*-F 8:30 - 2:30*	$150

* Writing & Technology concludes before lunch 7/11. SEL & Writing begins after lunch - at about 12:00pm.

IllinoisWritingProject

@IllinoisWP
@IllinoisWP_News

illinoiswritingproject.com

ILLINOIS WRITING PROJECT: EXPERIENCED EDUCATORS BUILDING THE STRENGTH OF STUDENTS AND TEACHERS AS LEARNERS AND WRITERS

2018 Writing & Technology Workshop

July 9-11, 2018 (Monday - Wednesday)

8:30am - 2:30pm

(Half day Wednesday)

At NEIU’s El Centro Campus

15 ISBE Professional Development Hours will be granted upon course completion

OPTIONAL: One (1) Northeastern Illinois University graduate credit hours may be earned. This option requires payment of tuition at NEIU’s graduate credit rate. Contact Dr. Katy Smith at K-Smith1@neiu.edu for details about how to register for this credit.

For more information and the link to register, visit our website at IllinoisWritingProject.com